

Big Stuff 2019
„Preserving large industrial objects in a changing environment”
11-13 September 2019, Katowice

Pre-conference tour 11.09.2019 (Wednesday)
8:45	Meeting at the reception of Hotel Novotel Katowice	https://www.accorhotels.com/pl/hotel-3377-n-ovotel-katowice-centrum/index.shtml
9:00	Transfer by bus to Bytom
9:45 - 10:00	On the way - industrial viewpoint
10:30 - 11:45	Szombierki Electric Power Station We advise you to wear closed shoes with hard sole, such as hiking boots	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Szombierki_Heat_Power_Station The site is unavailable for public!
11:45 - 12:00	Transfer by bus to Upper Silesian Narrow Gauge Railways Museum	https://sgkw.eu/
12:00 - 12:30	Visit in Upper Silesian Narrow Gauge Railways Museum
12:30 - 13:30	Ride by narrow gauge train to Silver Mine in Tarnowskie Góry (UNESCO site)	https://kopalniasrebra.pl/
13:30 - 15:00	Lunch (on your own) at the museum bistro canteen
15:00 - 17:00	Curatorial guided tour at the Silver Mine
17:00 - 18:00	Transfer by bus to Hotel Novotel Katowice
18:00	Free time	Hotel Novotel Katowice
I Day of conference 12.09.2019 (Thursday)
TIME	Program	Additional information
8:30 - 9:00	Registration of participants at the Muzeum Śląskie	Muzeum Śląskie, ul. T. Dobrowolskiego 1, Katowice https://muzeumslaskie.pl/en/
09:00 - 9:40	Opening of conference Welcome speech: Alicja Knast (Director of Muzeum Śląskie), Miles Oglethorpe (President of The International Committee on the Conservation of the Industrial Heritage), Stefan Brüggerhoff (Director of Deutsches Bergbau-Museum Bochum), Piotr Gerber (President of The Foundation for the Preservation of the Industrial Heritage of Silesia)

Panel I: Planning and Documentation Moderator - Miles Oglethorpe
TIME	TITLE	AUTHOR
09:40 - 10:00	I.1. Indumap – an internet based construction kit for the preservation of industrial monuments	Stefan Brüggerhoff, Kornelius Götz, Norbert Tempel
10:00 - 10:20	I.2. The material technical heritage of modern coal mining in the German Mining Museum Bochum	Michael Ganzelewski
10:20 - 10:40	I.3. Creating A Lifeline: Evaluating the Stabilization and Maintenance Needs for Conserving Aerospace Heritage on Outdoor Display	Chad Shores
10:40 - 11:00	I.4. Collecting and Displaying the Decommissioning of North Sea Oil and Gas at National Museums Scotland	Ellie Swinbank
11:00 - 11:20	I.5. Models of Industrial Heritage Protection. Foundation for the Protection of Industrial Heritage in Silesia	Piotr Gerber
11:20 - 11:40	Coffee and tea break
Panel II: Digital aspects in industrial heritage Moderator - Norbert Tempel
11:40 - 12:00	II.1. Digital documentation in the conservation of Big Stuff by web app	Kornelius Götz, Sofia Vargas-Koch
12:20 - 12:40	II.2. Petroleum Industry: Industrial heritage or documented digital heritage?	Bjorn Lindberg
12:40 - 13:00	II.3. How to conserve and develop industrial heritage sites as an area of innovation?	Heike Oevermann
13:00 - 13:20	II.4. Combining insights from the conservation of large technology and kinetic art	Alison Wain
13:20 - 13:40	II.5. In memory of the early hydro-power generation era in Taiwan : the study on Cultural Assets Inventory on Taiwan Power Company's technological sites and its subsequent application	Cheng-Chung Huang, Kai-Cheng Yang
13:40 - 14:30	Lunch
14:30 - 14:40	Breaking news: Krzemionki Opatowskie - Neolithic Flint Mines on UNESCO List	dr Julian Kołodziej
Panel III: Preservation Moderator - Stephen P. Koob
14:40 - 15:00	III.1. Challenges in the preservation of large-scale industrial sites: the Diósgyőr ironworks and the Úrkút manganese ore mine in Hungary and their heritage from a comparative perspective	Györgyi Németh
15:00 - 15:20	III.2. Between cultural, engineering and natural sciences – the education for dealing with large objects of industrial heritage	Stefan Brüggerhoff
15:20 - 15:40	III.3. The Tod Head lighthouse conservation	Marie Grima
15:40 - 16:00	III.4. The safeguarding of the Vale de Milhaços gunpowder factory and the operational conservation of the steam generating boiler and the steam engine	Graça Filipe
16:00 - 16:20	III.5. Is there a chance of authentic preservation for coated objects from iron and steel? Dewatering Fluids - an investigation for use in conservation	Eva Wentland
16:20 - 16:40	III.6. Overcoating of World War II free-weathered weapons with a paint system for offshore wind farms	Gesa Witt
16:40 - 17:00	Coffee and tea break

Panel IV.1: Presentation and interpretation, case studies Moderator - Alison Wain
TIME	TITLE	AUTHOR
16:40 - 17:00	IV.1.1. Historic train stations of Lower Silesia (Poland) and the possibility of adaptation	Maria Czarnecka, Aleksandra Kozaczek, Agnieszka Nowicka Gabriela Wojciechowska,
17:00 - 17:20	IV.1.2. Learning from the Zollverein: Industrieplanung as a Model for New Neighborhoods	Rene Davids
17:20 - 17:40	IV.1.3. The opportunities and challenges of China's industrial heritage of modern times applying for the list of world heritage.	Leilei Du
18:00 - 18:20	IV.1.4. Industrial Landscape in The Urban Context: Opportunity, Challenge or Burden? Case Study from Muzeum Śląskie, Katowice	Alicja Knast
18:20 - 18:40	IV.1.5. Urban development in Ghent offers new opportunities for industrial heritage and museum	Marc Pinte, Pieter Neirinckx
18:40 - 19:00	IV.1.6. Industrial architecture by Emil and Georg Zillmann at the beginning of the 20th century in Upper Silesia	Dominika Oleś
19:00	End of official part of the first day of the conference
	Evening guided tour in Muzeum Śląskie (with wine and snacks)
	Return to Hotel Novotel Katowice
21:00	Free time

II Day of conference 13.09.2019 (Friday)
TIME	Program	Additional information
8:15	Meeting at the reception of Hotel Novotel Katowice	Al. Roździeńskiego 16, Katowice
8:30	transfer by bus to Wieczorek Colliery, Katowice, latly closed historical coal mine	https://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kopalnia_W%C4%99gla_Kamiennego_Wieczorek
9:00 - 11:00	Guided tour in the Wieczorek colliery We advise you to wear closed shoes with hard sole, such as hiking boots	The site is unavailable for public!
11:00 - 11:30	Transfer by bus to Museum Walcownia (Zinc Rolling Mill, Katowice)	https://www.walcownia.org
11:30 - 12:30	Sightseeing of Museum Walcownia (including students posters exhibition)
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch at the Museum Walcownia
13:30 - 15:00	Workshops and discussion on the future of closed Wieczorek Colliery. To the discussion was invited the Regional Conservator and State Owner of Colliery Wieczorek

Panel IV.2: Presentation and interpretation, case studies Moderator - Alison Wain
TIME	TITLE	AUTHOR
15:00 - 15:20	IV.2.1. Preserving large industrial objects in a changing environment: Take Kunming Iron and Steel Plant as a case study	Wei Huang, Jie Zhang
15:20 - 15:40	IV.2.2. The Augsburg Water Management System – Technical development as an age long process and how to deal with the variety of the preserved elements	Sandra Kaiser, Jens Daube

15:40 - 16:00	IV.2.3. The New Contemporary Art Wing at The Corning Museum of Glass: Larger and Larger Conservation Challenges	Stephen P. Koob
16:00 - 16:20	IV.2.4. Big Stuff – The changing face of engineering heritage in Victoria – issues, challenges and opportunities for the role of volunteer organisations	Neil Myers (presented by Neil Hogg)
16:20 - 16:40	Coffee and tea break
Panel IV.3: Presentation and interpretation, case studies Moderator - Alison Wain
16:40 - 17:00	IV.3.1. Restoration of the Steam Ship John Oxley by volunteers in the age of certification	Glenn Rigden
17:00 - 17:20	IV.3.2. Old Power Stations as Industrial Heritage and Adaptive Re-Use Challenge	Bartosz M. Walczak, Mateusz Grabowski
17:20 - 17:40	IV.3.3. Restoration and enhancement of two hangars at the National Museum of Flight (NMoF), Scotland	Stuart McDonald
17:40 - 18:00	IV.3.4. Lost Heritage. Linen Spinning Mill in Mystakowice (Poland)	Maciej Mądry
18:00	End of official part of the second day of the conference
18:20	Transfer to hotel
19:15	Meeting at the reception of Hotel Novotel Katowice
19:30	Transfer to "Maciej Shaft" for conference party Dress code: cocktail-party	https://www.szybmaciej.pl/en/
ca. 20:00 - 23.00	Dinner and visiting at "Maciej Shaft" - private museum and dinner
23:00	Return by bus to Novotel Hotel Katowice
		Hotel Novotel Katowice